Zimmer Holdings, Inc. Announces Support for Board Declassification

Nov 15, 2006

WARSAW, Ind., Nov 15, 2006 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Zimmer Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: ZMH; SWX: ZMH) announced today that, at the next annual meeting of stockholders, its Board of Directors will recommend an amendment to the Company's charter to declassify its board structure.

The Company's Board of Directors is currently divided into three classes, with directors in each class serving staggered three-year terms. If the proposal is approved by more than 80 percent of the Company's outstanding shares, then directors elected after 2007 will serve annual terms.

J. Raymond Elliott, Chairman of the Board of Directors and President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, commented, "The Board is aware of the continuing interest in the way companies elect their boards. A stockholder proposal to declassify our Board received support at our last annual meeting, although not at the level required to amend our charter. This proposal, and the recently announced change to our by-laws providing for majority voting for election of directors, clearly demonstrate the Board's commitment to following best practices in today's corporate governance environment."
