

Zimmer Recognized for Market Leadership, Competitive Strategy

Apr 29, 2005

WARSAW, Ind., April 29, 2005 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- Zimmer Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: ZMH; SWX: ZMH), a leader in the orthopaedics industry, announced today it has received two Awards from independent researcher Frost & Sullivan. The Awards recognize Zimmer's achievements in acquiring Centerpulse AG in 2003 and in developing a leadership position in the Asian market for joint replacement products and are based on a study conducted in 2004 titled U.S. & Asia Joint Replacement Markets.

"Key elements in the Zimmer success strategy are capturing growth in both geographic segments and product categories, and these Awards recognize our accomplishments in executing against those strategies," said Ray Elliott, Zimmer Holdings Chairman, President and CEO. "The acquisition of Centerpulse provided us leadership in the European market and platform positions in the growing spine and dental product categories. We are continuing our expansion in Asia, where improving economies and medical systems and enormous populations should be positive for the future of orthopaedic markets."

According to Frost & Sullivan, the Competitive Strategy Leadership Award, which recognized the Centerpulse acquisition, is presented each year to a company whose competitive strategy has yielded significant gains in market share during the research period. "This strategy catapulted Zimmer to the forefront of the orthopaedic race, allowing the company to become the dominant participant in the global orthopaedic industry with a combined annual (2003) revenue of $2.6 billion," the research report said.

The Market Leadership Award was based on Zimmer's performance in Asia, which accounted for approximately 15% of the Company's total 2004 sales of approximately $3 billion. The Award is presented to a company who has exhibited market share leadership through the implementation of market strategy. Zimmer's plan for expansion in Asia includes a major commitment to the emerging Chinese market for orthopaedic products, where it now has more than 60 full-time employees in place in five major cities.
