

Zimmer Holdings, Inc. Adopts Majority Voting for Director Elections

Sep 18, 2006

WARSAW, Ind., Sept 18, 2006 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Zimmer Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: ZMH; SWX: ZMH) announced today that its Board of Directors has amended the company's By-Laws to adopt a majority vote standard for the election of directors in uncontested elections. Previously, directors were elected under a plurality vote standard, meaning the candidates receiving the most votes would win without regard to whether those votes constituted a majority of the shares voting at the meeting. Contested elections (where there are more nominees than directors to be elected) will continue to use the plurality vote standard.

The By-Laws as amended also include a director resignation policy which will require an incumbent director who does not receive a majority of the votes cast to tender his or her resignation to the Board of Directors, subject to acceptance by the Board of Directors. The Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate the tendered resignation and will make a recommendation to the Board of Directors on whether to accept or reject the resignation or whether other action should be taken. The Board of Directors will publicly disclose its decision and the rationale behind it within 90 days of the certification of election results.

The Board of Directors has also amended the company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to incorporate the director resignation policy.
