ZIMMER BIOMET
Moving You Forward.™

"We are excited to welcome David to Zimmer Biomet as our head of investor relations," said Mr. Tornos. "His impressive career achievements and extensive knowledge of the medtech industry, as both an investor and in equity research, make him the ideal candidate for this strategically important position. As we navigate an exciting and pivotal time for our Company, David will play a critical role in leading our IR initiatives and enhancing our positive relationships across the investment community."

Mr. DeMartino brings to Zimmer Biomet more than 25 years of experience in the healthcare industry, including asset management, equity research, and investment banking. Prior to joining ZB, he was Chief Strategy Officer at Nyxoah, a medical technology company focused on the development and commercialization of innovative solutions to treat Obstructive Sleep Apnea. Mr. DeMartino was also a portfolio manager at DNB Asset Management and has held senior analysts positions at Velan Capital, Citadel and Pura Vida Investments, covering the medical devices, biotechnology and healthcare technology industries. In addition to investing in publicly traded companies at Pura Vida, he worked on private company investments. He spent several years in sell-side equity research, initially covering healthcare facilities at Deutsche Bank and then medical devices at Credit Suisse. He began his career with the Deutsche Bank Healthcare investment banking group. Mr. DeMartino earned a BA in Economics from Washington and Lee University.
