

Zimmer Holdings Announces MIS Agreement with Ohio Orthopedic Surgery Institute at the Ohio Orthopedic Center of Excellence

Apr 18, 2005

New Zimmer Institute Location to Provide Surgeon Education

WARSAW, Ind., April 18, 2005 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- Zimmer Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: ZMH; SWX: ZMH) announced today that it has entered into an agreement with the Ohio Orthopedic Surgery Institute at the Ohio Orthopedic Center of Excellence in Columbus, Ohio, to establish a Zimmer Institute location to collaborate on advancement of Minimally Invasive Solutions(TM) (MIS(TM)) Procedures and Technologies.

Under the terms of the agreement, Dr. Michael A. McShane, M.D., vice president of the Ohio Orthopedic Center of Excellence and a medical staff member of the Surgery Institute, and the Surgery Institute's professional staff will train orthopaedic surgeons from across the nation to use Zimmer's MIS total hip and total knee replacement technologies and participate in MIS product refinement. The location will serve as a Zimmer Institute teaching facility and will be part of a global effort to develop best practices in MIS patient care.

Dr. McShane, a member of the Ohio Joint Replacement Institute, is a board certified, fellowship trained orthopaedic surgeon specializing in total joint replacement surgery. "Dr. McShane is well respected nationally as a clinician and educator, and we are pleased he and the Ohio Orthopedic Surgery Institute will be part of the Zimmer Institute," said Zimmer Chairman, President and CEO Ray Elliott. "The potential of MIS joint replacement is being realized in greater numbers every day. Achieving the real promise depends on training more surgeons in more places to provide patients with the benefits of minimally invasive joint replacement. We are pleased to work with Dr. McShane and the Institute to expand the number of surgeons who can offer the procedures to their patients and to refine best practices in MIS care."

"We look forward to providing an outstanding environment to train physicians in the cutting edge technology of minimally invasive surgical procedures," said Dr. McShane. "Our shared goal is to improve patient experiences and outcomes by encouraging the use of minimally invasive total joint replacement."

Zimmer opened the first location of the Zimmer Institute at the Company's headquarters in Warsaw, Indiana, in 2003. Since then, it has established partnerships with distinguished institutions, such as Johns Hopkins University in the United States, and with several international partners. The Company says this network of Zimmer Institute locations will contribute to a common pool of data and best practices, enabling each partner to benefit from the experience and developments of the others. The Company provided training for more than 1,400 surgeons in 2004 at all Zimmer Institute locations.
